Several years ago, when a fashionable lady wanted a stylish parasol made to suit her fancy and match her costume, it was necessary to send East, which very often resulted unsatisfactorily, inasmuch as explanation by letter "is not personal attention." Namendorf Bros.' advent in St. Louis has changed all this, and their work, for beauty, style and elegance, surpasses many and is equaled by few in the East. They make your parasol just as you want it, and guarantee perfect satisfaction. You will find them at 314 North 6th St., opposite Barr's.

The reason that Genelli's photos are always the best is that he keeps the best and highest-salaried artists to be had for love or money. Studio, 923 Olive Street.

Julius F. Reinke, of 2309 North Market St., is the happy possessor of a beautiful ash piano, manufactured by T. Bahnsen, of 1520 Olive St. The Bahnsen piano is quite a favorite.

Universal admiration is being expressed in regard to the piano known as "Style I," manufactured by Messrs. C. C. Briggs & Co. There is a certain nicety of proportion about the Briggs instruments that is always agreeable to the cultivated eye, and which, by the way, speaks more for the taste of the manufacturers than elaborate ornamentation; but the instrument in question possesses both these points of excellence, being quite elaborate and yet tasteful. It is, in fact, a good example of the correct use of carving, &c., and furnishes a solution to the problem of how much ornamentation may be used without infringing on good taste. The Messrs. Briggs use their largest scale in this elegant case, and the results obtained—so far as tone is concerned—are of the highest order. A consignment of these instruments may be seen at the Jesse French Piano and Organ Co.'s warerooms.

THE BURLINGTON ROUTE.

Most people know what The Burlington Route is—some people, perhaps, do not know that it is the MODEL RAILROAD of the West. The Burlington Route is the name of a first-class railroad from Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis to and between the principal cities and towns of Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska and Colorado. The 7000 miles of this great road pass into and through the best farming regions of these great States, reach Deadwood, So. Dakota, and the new mining country of the Black Hills.

Along the lines of the Burlington Route are the best opportunities in the WEST, NORTHWEST and SOUTHWEST, for the farmer, the manufacturer, the merchant, the miller, the miner and the pleasure-seeker.

The Burlington Route runs through passenger trains every day in the year between St. Louis, Chicago and Peoria, Kansas City, Atchison, St. Joseph, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Denver, St. Paul and Minneapolis, making connections at these points with all eastern and western roads, and giving the traveling public unequaled facilities.

For speed, safety, comfort, character of equipment and track, and efficient service for passengers and freight, it is unequalled.

Convincing Evidence

That Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures Rheumatism and kindred complaints is abundant. This medicine eradicates from the blood all trace of the disease, and so invigorates the system that a perfect restoration to health is inevitable.

"In Oakland, La., 22 years ago, I had been sick a year and a half with sciatic rheumatism. The extreme pains that I suffered wasted my flesh to the bone, and my strength and vitality were well nigh exhausted. My skin was yellow and rough, showing a bad state of the blood, and it is more than likely that blood poison existed, as I have taken large quantities of mercury. After the sciatica was in a measure under control, I was put under treatment to cleanse the blood and give me strength. This was continued several weeks, but to no purpose. My physician then suggested the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it is to this medicine I owe my restoration to health. From actual experience in the use of various blood-purifiers, I am confident that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has no equal."—J. W. Pickle, Farmerville, La.

"I have known Mr. J. W. Pickle for many years, and consider him a truthful man."—R. B. Dawkins, Mayor of Farmerville, La.

"During the past year my joints, which had become stiff and sore, caused me great pain, especially at the close of a day's work. At times my fingers were so lame I was unable to hold a needle, while the pain at night prevented my sleeping. I suffered also from nervous chills and a want of appetite. I tried outward applications and took remedies prescribed by my doctor; but all to no purpose. A short time ago my son-in-law, Wm. Woods, of Hollis, N. H., was cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla of an inflammatory disease of the eyes, and seeing him so much benefited, I thought I would try this medicine for my own trouble. The result is a complete cure of the pains, stiffness, and swelling from which I suffered so much. The Sarsaparilla has had a good effect on my appetite and nerves, so that I have better strength and no more chills."—Eliza Halvorsen, Nashua, N. H.

"After being many years afflicted with rheumatism, I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great success."—J. B. Bridge, Boston, Mass.

DETROIT PHILHARMONIC CLUB.

The St. Louis public was favored, April 20th, at Memorial Hall, with a concert by the Detroit Philharmonic Club, which is composed of the following gentlemen: William Yuncck, 1st violin; L. F. Schultz, 2nd violin; Walter Voigtlander, viola; and Alfred Hoffman, violoncello. The reputation that these gentlemen have earned the past years for their excellent work in ensemble playing drew a large audience, comprising the very best musical element St. Louis boasts of, for it expected to hear a smooth and thoroughly enjoyable performance; as the performance, however, was far ahead of anything heard in St. Louis for years, it was a surprise to all. The work of the Club is remarkable, and each number was applauded with an enthusiasm that knew no bounds. Where everything was done so masterly, it would be superfluous to dwell on any single performance of special excellence.

Mr. Yuncck's magnificent playing, in his solo as well as ensemble work, proved that he is an artist of the very first rank. Mr. Voigtlander's viola playing was the finest ever heard in St. Louis.

The Club was assisted by Miss Adelaide Kalkmann, soprano, and E. R. Kroeger, who shared in the successes of the evening.

The Club complimented our city by playing E. R. Kroeger's F minor Quintette, the work that received such an ovation at the M. T. N. A. convention at Detroit last summer. After listening to the work as rendered by these gentlemen, assisted by the composer, we can well understand how it could not have been received otherwise. The Detroit Ph. Club will, on its second visit, (which we hope is to be soon) find an audience to greet it that will more than prove the St. Louis public to be deeply appreciative of great performances and of great music. We append the programme: 1. Robert Schumann (1810-1856), Quartet for Strings in A major, Op. 41, No. 3; (a) Andante espressivo—Allegro Molto Moderato; (b) Assai Agitato; (c) Adagio Molto; (d) Finale—(Allegro Molto Vivace), the Detroit Philharmonic Club. 2. William Taubert (1811—), Soprano Solo, "Heimweh," Miss Kalkmann. 3. (a) Anton Rubinstein (1829—), "Music of the Spheres;" (b) Franz Schubert (1797-1828), Moment Musical, "A la Hongroise;" (c) Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847), Scherzo, the Detroit Philharmonic Club. 4. Henri Ernst (1814-1865) Violin Solo, Fantasia on airs from Rossini's "Othello," Mr. Yuncck. 5. Richard Wagner (1813-1883), Soprano Solo, "Elsa's Traum," from "Lohengrin," Miss Kalkmann. 6. Ernest R. Kroeger (1862—), Quintet for Piano and Strings in F minor; (a) Allegro Energico; (b) Intermezzo; (c) Lento e Sostenuuto; (d) Finale—(alla Tarantella), the Detroit Philharmonic Club and Mr. Kroeger. The Miller Concert Grand piano which was used at this concert charmed all with its magnificent qualities.

MENDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB.

The last concert of the season given by this excellent organization was a great success in every respect. The soloists, Messrs. Heerich and Porteous, were enthusiastically received. The steady development made by the club is most marked, and the interest manifested by its intelligent audiences highly deserved. Messrs. Victor Ehling, Geo. Heerich, Louis Mayer, Valentine Schopp and P. G. Anton, Jr., the members, are to be congratulated.

EMMA JUCH.

"There is as much melody in your voice as there is rhyme and reason in the words of Shakespeare," was the beautiful tribute paid to Miss Emma Juch by President Diaz at a banquet recently tendered to the prima donna at the Hotel Jardine, in the City of Mexico. Miss Juch's tour through the Republic of Mexico has been an unprecedented, artistic triumph. During the past four weeks the Theatre National, in the Mexican Capital, where Miss Juch and her Company are now engaged, has been thronged nightly with delighted and enthusiastic auditors. Not content with crowding the auditorium of this vast theatre to its utmost seating and standing capacity, the space between the wings and the "fly galleries" on the stage has been invaded by many who were unable to secure places in front. It is quite customary for Mexicans to pay for the privilege to witness a performance from the stage. It has become so established that a manager must allow this privilege to a patron of the playhouse, if he demands it, when the places are all occupied in the auditorium.

During the Juch season, crowded houses have been the rule, both front and back. Miss Juch has not only made a grand individual triumph, and the Company which bears her name has met with admiration and favor, but she has accomplished the remarkable task of popularizing the music dramas of Richard Wagner, sung in the English language among a Latin race. Verdi and Rossini were idolized in Mexico until the advent of the Juch Company with a Wagner repertoire. Heretofore it was considered absurd and foolhardy for an Impresario to present a Wagner opera to a Mexican public, especially by an English singing Company.

Miss Juch has completely revolutionized this state of things in that country, for it is declared that her productions of Wagner's operas have not only removed this prejudice against the world's greatest composer, but have created a veritable furor in his favor. The reception and success of "Tannhauser," which was the first Wagner opera presented in Mexico, was so positive and immediate as to win for Wagner and Miss Juch a devotion more fervent than that bestowed on Italian composers and singers. This is particularly interesting, because of Miss Juch's forthcoming appearance in this city. At the close of the Mexican engagement, she and her splendid Company come direct to St. Louis, and, in the Exposition Music Hall, commencing Monday, May 11th, will present an incomparable repertoire of grand operas. On this occasion, which is most appropriately termed a "May Opera Festival," she will have the valuable co-operation of Jannschowsky, Maconda, Freibert, Meislinger, Hedmont, Clarke, Stephens, Rathjens, Stormont, Velta and Knight, who are considered among the ablest artists who sing in the English language, a grand orchestra of sixty, the Juch chorus of fifty, St. Louis Orpheus Söngerbund, and the St. Louis Damenchor, numbering in all three hundred, and making the most imposing array of musical talent that has ever appeared in English Grand Opera in St. Louis. "Tannhauser," "Fidelio," "Lohengrin," "Huguenots," "The Flying Dutchman," "Carmen," and "Die Walkure," are the operas for the festival week and the order in which they will be produced. With Neuendorff as Musical Director, and Parry as Stage Manager, and the operas mounted with a wealth of scenery, costumes, and other stage splendor, is an assurance that the festival will not only be a great popular success, but one of the most important musical and operatic events that has ever been announced in this city.

ST. LOUIS CHORAL-SYMPHONY SOCIETY.

The last concert of this association, April 16th, was a fit close to a brilliant season. Mr. Otten prepared for the occasion an unusually fine programme—offering for its chief orchestral numbers Schubert's unfinished Symphony No. 8, B minor; Liszt's Symphonic Poem, "Les Preludes;" and Beethoven's Piano Concerto in E flat major, with Franz Rummel as soloist. Mr. Otten seemed more than inspired with the works in hand. The different numbers were rendered with a delicacy, promptness and rare spirit that showed the orchestra was thoroughly in concord with him, for he swayed it with an ease that only a complete study and understanding of these works can possibly achieve. The committee of gentlemen who had the concerts in charge may well be proud of the success so honestly won. If there were any doubts entertained by a few wisecracks at the outset of the concerts as to Mr. Otten steering the ship, those doubts have been dispelled, for all must admit the successes achieved. The work of Mr. Franz Rummel, the soloist on the occasion, was simply superb—he was recalled again and again. Having dwelt upon his masterly performances at length in our April issue, we only remark that better piano playing was never listened to in St. Louis. The piano used by Mr. Rummel was a magnificent Steinway Grand—which justly shared the triumph of Rummel.

LOUIS ELSON.

Louis Elson, the eminent Boston lecturer and critic, gave a lecture, entitled, "The Story of German Music," at Memorial Hall, on the 23rd ult. The illustrations were: Ancient Minnesong, "König Rudolf," about 1275; Modern Minnesong, "O. Du mein holder Abendstern"—R. Wagner; "Ich alter Mann," 14th century, arranged by R. Franz; "Dich meiden" (popular song), 15th century; Ancient Choral, "Goldberg," 14th century; Comic Song, "Urian's Journey," L. V. Beethoven; Körner's "Schwertlied," C. M. v. Weber; "Gretel," F. Kücken; Loreley, F. Silcher.

Mr. Elson held the audience in the closest attention, the evening proving one of great instruction and delight. Every one declared the lecture a rare treat. The Miller piano was selected for use in this concert. We advise all who have an opportunity of hearing Mr. Elson, to take advantage of it. Mr. Elson will favor a few cities with his presence before returning to Boston.

CITY NOTES.

"The edition of Webster's Dictionary of 1847 has been reprinted by a Chicago house, copyright on it having expired by the lapse of forty-two years. Only those who are ignorant of the great advances that have been made in dictionaries are likely to buy this reprint at any price," says the New York Times, while the Buffalo Christian Advocate adds: "Don't be duped. Thousands are, or are likely to be, by the flashy, fraudulent advertisements of 'The Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary,' which is offered for two or three dollars. * * * If any of our readers wish to invest in a purchase which they will be likely afterward to regret, they will do so after being duly notified."
